

Jewish Federation OF ST. LOUIS

The Young Israel of St. Louis and the Maimonides Society of the Jewish Federation of St. Louis proudly present a jointly-sponsored lecture:

Rabbi Chaim Eisen

Senior Lecturer, Seymour J. Abrams OU Jerusalem World Center (formerly, the OU-NCSY Israel Center)

Rabbinic “Science” versus Science as We Know It: Can We Reconcile Them?

Sunday, November 7, 2010 at 8 pm

Location: The Young Israel of St. Louis 8101 Delmar Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63130

Free/Open to the public

For more information, please contact the Young Israel office at: (314) 727-1880

Rabbi Eisen also serves as a religious (Torah) lecturer in the Israeli Defense Force (IDF) Rabbinate Torah Lecture Corps (Reserves, retired) and is the founding editor of the OU journal, Jewish Thought: A Journal of Torah Scholarship. He is a preeminent expert in classical Jewish philosophy and has taught in various Israeli rabbinical academies for nearly 30 years.

The Young Israel of St. Louis is a vibrant, modern Orthodox shul under the Rabbinic leadership of Rabbi Moshe Shulman. The Maimonides Society is a program of the Jewish Federation of St. Louis with a mission to promote fellowship amongst Jewish health care professionals in the wider St. Louis region. For more information about the society please contact Mindee Fredman at: (314) 442-3234.

www.youngisrael-stl.org

www.jewishinstlouis.org/maimonides