

Community-wide event

Commemorating the 4th Yartzheit of

Sarah Adelman <sup>z'l</sup>

Sunday, July 11, 2010 at 7:00 P.M.
Young Israel of St. Louis

Community-wide lecture, minimum donation of $18.00 per family

Featuring

Dr. Rivkah Blau****

Analyzing Challenges in TaNaKh: Single Life, Marriage, and Family

** Dr. Rivkah Blau is the author of "Learn Torah, Love Torah, Live Torah," a biography of her father, Rav Mordechai Pinchas Teitz, that has been translated into Hebrew, "V'Samahta B'Hayekha." She edited "Gender Relationships: In Marriage and Out" for the Orthodox Forum. She is a member of the Forum and of the editorial board of Tradition.

Her doctoral thesis in English and Comparative Literature at Columbia was on the presence of Psalms in 17th century poetry, especially Milton's "Paradise Lost." She and her husband, Rabbi Yosef Blau, the Director of Religious Guidance at Yeshiva University, are the parents of Rabbis Binyamin, Yitzchak, and Yaakov Blau who are all teachers of Torah.

SPONSORED BY THE SARAH ADELMAN
MEMORIAL FUND

The Sarah Adelman Memorial Fund supports programs and initiatives to help individuals dealing with psychological and social issues. Needy individuals in the St. Louis Jewish Orthodox community requiring counseling can be supported by this fund.