

Community-wide event
Commemorating the 7th Yartzheit of
Sarah Adelman ז"ל

Sunday, July 7, 2013 at 12:45 P.M.
Young Israel of St. Louis

Community-wide lecture, minimum donation of $18.00 per family

Featuring

PROF. SMADAR ROSENSWEIG***

WHAT IS THE IMPACT OF HAFTARAS NAHAMU ON OUR CONCEPT OF NEHAMA (CONSOLATION)?

*Prof. Smadar Rosensweig is a professor of Bible at Stern College for Women at Yeshiva University, as well as a professor of biblical studies at Allegra Franco Sephardic Women's Teachers College. Previously, she was a professor of Judaic studies and history at Touro College. Prof. Rosensweig received a master's degree in philosophy and a master's degree in arts from Columbia University. She gives shiurim and lectures throughout the NY metropolitan area and across the country.

SPONSORED BY THE SARAH ADELMAN MEMORIAL FUND

The Sarah Adelman Memorial Fund supports programs and initiatives to help educate the community about dealing with psychological and social issues. Needy children in the St. Louis Jewish Orthodox community requiring counseling are supported by the fund.