And every one who was in distress, and every one who was in debt, and every one who was discontented, gathered to him; and he became captain over them.

(1 Samuel 22:2)