

Rashi Deut 21

It may be taken [her] for yourself as a wife: Scripture [in permitting this marriage] is speaking only against the evil inclination. For if the Holy One, blessed be He, would not permit her to him, he would take her illicitly. But if he marries her, he will ultimately come to despise her, as it says after this, “If a man has [two wives—one beloved and the other despised]” (verse 15); moreover he will ultimately father through her a wayward and rebellious son (see verse 18). For this reason, these passages are juxtaposed. [Tanchuma 1]
